We will be at the reception venue after the ceremony ready to meet and greet the bride and groom with their guests. Our alpacas will mingle amongst your party before and during your reception, and there will be plenty of time for those unforgettable photographs.

2 handlers will be there to accompany the alpacas at all times, ensuring you and your guests have the most perfect day celebrating your nuptials

As part of the package food bags for the alpacas will be included in the total price, allowing your guests the chance to get up close and personal with the alpacas and feed them. We will have a set amount available dependent upon your guest list numbers and requirements.

Props including a veil and bow tie will be worn by both of the alpacas on the day, perfect for that picture perfect moment.
